

We are debt relief agency that helps people file for relief under the Bankruptcy Code.

PLEASE NOTE: You do not become a client of the Our Law Firm unless you enter into a written agreement signed by you and the Firm. The agreement must also spell out the scope of the work that is to be done. Simply sending an inquiry by call, mail, fax, or email does not establish an attorney-client relationship.

Our Law Firm Privacy Policy

Our Privacy Policy...

We care about protecting your online privacy. We have developed this privacy policy to inform you about what information this web site collects, who may receive that information, what we may do with the information, and how long we keep it. While we have made every attempt to make this policy as clear as possible, if you have any further questions about it, feel free to contact us.

We will not give out any information you submit at our site to any third parties except in compliance with a request of a law enforcement agency. Under no circumstances will we give or sell your name, e-mail, phone number or address to any other parties.

Your personal information is collected through our contact forms only. This website currently has no applications or programs that gather information from your computer without your consent. Users are required to give us contact information (e.g., your name and email address) and demographic information (e.g., your zip code). Certain information, such as your email address, is collected in order to verify your identity and for use in our records. Information collected at this website is kept in our records only as long as is necessary to provide requested services to our clients.

If you have any questions about this privacy statement or the practices of this site, please contact us at 405-273-6810.
